Just wanted to drop you some notes on mine and Tim's hunt with Zambeze Delta Safaris. Didn't feel you left enough room on your form for the accolades they deserve.

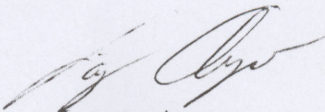

From the first moment at the Beira airport with the greeting from Pete to the flight out of Mungari with Craigh, we were treated as family. Colleen, Josh and Nick were wonderful hosts our entire stay and the boys were always being helpful. The meals were good and we said grace at every dinner meal. The staff was attentive to all our needs and we were pleased with their efforts to make us comfortable.

I now understand why they are called Professional Hunters. Craigh was at first concerned that I would not be up to the physical requirements but he soon realized that I could really go for an old man. The next six days it seemed I was either crawling or wading and going after only the best trophies. This is exactly what I wanted. Only a true professional can pull off a stalk as Craigh. It seemed we always had the wind in our face and stalking a true trophy. I know Craigh's experience was vital in my success but I am sure his eagerness to work hard for me was just as important. As Craigh says, "As long as there is lead in the air, there is hope" The idea of "give up" never crosses his mind and I would not want it any other way!

The attention to detail and patience Craigh exercised was excellent. From the extra bottle of water to the taking of some cheesy photos, Craigh got it done. Craigh is a true Professional Hunter. If you like, I can send you a CD of all the photos when it is ready.

Tim is already talking a return in 2013 to Africa with Zambeze Delta Safaris.

In closing, I was privileged to experience a true African Hunting Adventure and look forward to hunting with Craigh and his staff again.
